

ADULT ED TERM 4: FEBRUARY 26 - APRIL 9

Connections: Historical Perspectives of the New Testament: Through the lecture series offered by The Great Courses, Professor Bart D. Ehrman develops a carefully reasoned understanding of the New Testament—and the individuals and communities who created its texts. This course draws on modern biblical scholarship, recent archaeological discoveries and literary analysis to trace the history of the New Testament and of the early Christian faith community.

Facilitators: Joseph Jenkins and Diane McGrath.

Location: Vance Barron Hall.

Class Schedule:

March 5: The Historical Jesus-Sources and Problems

March 12: The Historical Jesus-Solutions and Methods

March 19: Jesus the Apocalyptic Prophet

March 26: Do We Have the Original New Testament?

April 2: Professor Bart Ehrman*

April 9: Our Faith in History: Rev. Bob Dunham

(*invited to speak, confirmed at a later date)

Living Out Our Faith: Raising an Adult: In How to Raise an Adult, Julie Lythcott-Haims draws on research, on conversations with admissions officers, educators, and employers, and on her own insights as a mother and as a student dean to highlight the ways in which overparenting harms children, their stressed-out parents, and society at large. While empathizing with the parental hopes and, especially, fears that lead to overhelping, Lythcott-Haims offers practical alternative strategies that underline the importance of allowing children to make their own mistakes and develop the resilience, resourcefulness, and inner determination necessary for success.

Facilitator: Tracy Woody.

Location: Terrace Room.
