CONCERNS AND CELEBRATIONS

*OPENING SENTENCES

Matthew 5:14, 16

One: You are the light of the world.

All: Let your light shine before others,
so that they may see your good works and give glory to God in heaven.

*HYMN 17

“Sing Praise to God, You Heavens!”

Wie lieblich ist der Maien

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Merciful God,
we confess that we have not loved You with all our hearts,
that we have been distracted by our own desires and our own longings for security.
So, we have kept silent when we might have spoken,
not acting in the face of wrongdoing or injustice,
not living as exemplars of grace and love and peace.
Forgive us, we pray, not only for misdeeds,
but for good deeds left undone.
By Your Spirit, free us once again for joyful obedience, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

*Silent Confession

*Kyrie Eleison

Arr. David N. Johnson

Lord, have mer - cy up - on us. Christ, have mer - cy up - on us. Lord, have mer - cy up - on us.

*Declaration of Pardon

*The Peace

Leader: The peace of Christ be with you.

People: And also with you.

(The congregation is invited to exchange the peace of Christ with one another, greeting each other with the words, "The peace of Christ be with you," or simply, "Peace." The response is, "And also with you.")

*Response of Praise

(Text: Hymnal, 109; Tune: 17)

On those who sit in darkness the sun begins to rise,
the dawning of forgiveness upon the sinner's eyes.
God guides the feet of pilgrims along the paths of peace.
O bless our God and Savior with songs that never cease!

TIME WITH CHILDREN

(Children, three-years old through third-graders, are invited to join the minister on the steps for Time With Children.)

MEDITATION "Don't Hold Back!" Robert E. Dunham
(Time is provided following the sermon for a few moments of personal reflection and prayer.)

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH from A Declaration of Faith, 1977

We believe that God sends us to tell all nations that Christ calls everyone to repentance, faith and obedience.
We are to proclaim by word and deed that Christ gave himself to set people free from sin and self-hatred,
from ignorance and disease,
from all forms of oppression,
and even from death.
We are to offer them in Christ's name fullness of life now and forever.
We must not distort the gospel by weakening its promises or demands, by identifying it with oppressive structures,
by pointing to ourselves instead of Christ.
We must not restrict our proclamation to persons just like ourselves.
We invite people everywhere
to believe in Christ and become his followers.
We urge them to join us in telling others the good news
and in struggling for justice, compassion, and peace.

SACRAMENT OF THE LORD'S SUPPER

Invitation to the Table

The Great Prayer of Thanksgiving

One: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

One: Lift up your hearts.

All: We lift them up to the Lord.

One: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is indeed right,
for You made us,
and before us, You made the world we inhabit,
and before the world, You made the eternal home
in which, through Christ, we have a place.
All that is spectacular and all that is plain have their origin in You;
all that is lovely and all who are loving point to You as their fulfillment.
And grateful as we are for the world we know
and the universe beyond our knowing, we particularly praise You, whom eternity cannot contain,
for coming to earth and entering time in Jesus.

For his life, which informs our living,
for his compassion, which changes our hearts,
for his clear speaking, which contradicts our generalities,
for his disturbing presence, his innocent suffering,
his fearless dying, his rising to life and breathing forgiveness,
we praise You and worship him.

Here too our gratitude rises for the promise of the Holy Spirit, who even yet, even now, confronts us with Your claims and attracts us to Your goodness.
Therefore, we gladly join our voices to the song of the church on earth and in heaven:

And now,
lest we believe that our praise alone fulfills Your purpose, we fall silent and remember him who came because words were not enough.
Setting our wisdom, our will, our words aside, emptying our hearts, and bringing nothing in our hands, we yearn for the healing, the holding, the accepting, the forgiving that Christ alone can offer.

Silence

Merciful God, send now, in kindness, your Holy Spirit to settle on this bread and cup and fill them with the fullness of Jesus.

And let that same Spirit rest on us, converting us from the patterns of this passing world,
until we conform to the shape of him whose food we now share.
Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever.
Amen.

The Words of Institution

The Communion of the People

(As you pass the elements to your neighbor, please say “The Body of Christ” and “The Cup of Salvation.” The response is “Amen.” The congregation then is asked to hold each of the elements until all have been served, and to commune together at the leading of the ministers.)

Prayer of Response

THE SENDING

*HYMN 305 “Come Sing, O Church, in Joy!” Darwall’s 148th

Welcome to the Fellowship of University Presbyterian Church

SUNDAY MORNING CHILDCARE is available during both worship services for infants, toddlers and preschool children, who will be welcomed by our trained nursery staff and parent volunteers. Infants are welcome in the Sanctuary, but the parlor is a wonderful place to calm an anxious baby. A special part of our service is the Time with Children, when they are invited to join the pastor on the chancel steps for a message that connects the worship of the day with their unique understanding.

DURING THE 11:00 A.M. WORSHIP SERVICE, UPC offers Godly Play for kindergarteners and children who are age four (as of September 1). This is a time of storytelling and creative play. Following the Time with Children, kindergarteners and four-year-olds go with the Godly Play Assistant through the door to the left of the pulpit to the Godly Play room on the first floor.

WE WELCOME AND EMBRACE ALL CHILDREN and strive to provide skilled caregivers to accommodate any special needs. Please contact the Staff Associate for Children’s Ministries, Nancy Myer, at nancy@upcch.org or (919) 929-2102 if there is anything we can do to enhance the Sunday morning experience for your entire family.

THE SOUPER BOWL OF CARING began over 25 years ago with a simple prayer from a single youth group: "Lord, even as we enjoy the Super Bowl football game, help us be mindful of those without a bowl of soup to eat." Today, Kirk Club youth will take part in this national effort to love our neighbors. They will hold soup pots at the Sanctuary doors following both worship services to collect money for those who are hungry and hurting. In 2016, groups participating in the Souper Bowl of Caring generated over $10.5 million in cash and food items. None of the money is sent to Souper Bowl headquarters and will instead be donated locally to TABLE. Please drop your dollar in the soup pot as you leave worship today.

THIS MORNING'S MUSIC hails from France. The Organ Voluntary offers Litanies, Jehan Alain's (1911-1941) most celebrated work. It is a musical representation of a Litany, a form of repetitive prayer, in which the theme is repeated with greater and greater intensity. Three weeks after Litanies was completed, Jehan's sister lost her life in a climbing accident while rescuing him from danger. It was after this tragic event that Jehan wrote the following dedication to Litanies: "When the Christian soul in distress no longer finds words to implore God's mercy, it repeats ceaselessly the same invocation with a vehement faith. Reason has reached its limit: Faith alone pursues its ascension." One of the most promising young composers of his generation, Jehan was killed in action in the early days of WWII, ironically just two days before the Franco/German armistice. Jehan Alain was born 105 years ago this past week on February 2. This morning's 8:30 Offertory is part of François Couperin's (1668-1733) Messe pour les Couvents (Mass for the Convents), music intended to be played in alternum with the choir during High Mass. This movement explores the bass of the Trumpet stop. The 11:00 Anthem is taken from Charles Gounod's (1818-1893) sacred masterpiece, his Messe Solennelle (Solemn Mass, 1855). It is dedicated to Cecilia, a Sicilian martyr (176 A.D.) who, in 1584, was named Patron Saint of Music at the establishment of the Academy of Music in Rome.

THE GREAT PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING today is from the Iona Community in Scotland.

THE ROSE ON THE RETABLE announces the birth of Amelie "Millie" Rose Morales. Millie is the child of Sarah and Jason Morales (sister to Daphne) and was born on January 28, 2017.

Stewardship Campaign Update

BUDGET UPDATE: The Session is closing in on a proposed budget for 2017. We still need additional pledges to be able to maintain spending at current levels, and we have need of some increases in spending. If you have not yet made a pledge for 2017, or if you find yourself able to increase your pledge, please do so today. You may fill out a pledge card in the worship registers and place it in the offering plate, make a pledge online at upcch.org/stewardship or contact the UPC finance office at finance@upcch.org or (919) 929-2102.

Transition Team

IN THE LIFE OF ANY ORGANIZATION, change is certain. UPC is no different. While we know change is ultimately healthy, it will challenge us all by evoking a range of deep thoughts and feelings. We acknowledge and embrace the ancient wisdom of Ecclesiastes 3:1-8, "For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven..." With the upcoming transition from the ministry of Bob Dunham, the Session has appointed a team of members to lead and support the congregation. Members of the team will be in the narthex before and after worship and at Coffee on the Landing, ready to listen to your questions and share updates on the transition plans. Be on the lookout for information in the February edition of The Chimes and a letter coming to your homes. Up-to-date information is available now on the UPC website at upcch.org/transition.

Second Sunday Lunch

THE CONGREGATION IS INVITED to Second Sunday Lunch on February 12 in the Fellowship Hall, following the 11:00 a.m. worship service. Those who attend are asked to bring a vegetable dish, a salad or a dessert for approximately 12 people. Please be generous! All new members, visitors and students are welcome without contribution. If possible, please add a label to your dish specifying allergens to help UPC show hospitality to those with food allergies. Labels such as "gluten free," "contains peanuts/tree nuts" or "vegetarian" are helpful for those with allergies and other dietary needs wishing to enjoy food and fellowship at church. We encourage you to come and enjoy the warm fellowship and delicious food with your church family. All are welcome!
