PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

CHAPEL HILL, NORTH CAROLINA

April 15, 2018
Third Sunday of Easter
8:30 and 11:00 a.m.

THE GATHERING

PREPARATION FOR WORSHIP

Albert Einstein
1879-1955

From the age of six to fourteen I took violin lessons but had no luck with my teachers, for whom music did not transcend mechanical practicing. I really began to learn only after I had fallen in love with Mozart's sonatas. The attempt to reproduce their singular grace compelled me to improve my technique. I believe, on the whole, that love is a better teacher than sense of duty.

THE ORGAN VOLUNTARY

Ralph Vaughan Williams
1872-1958

Rhosymedre

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

Please sign the Worship Register and pass it on to your neighbor.

*OPENING SENTENCES

Psalm 30: 4-5, 11-12

One: Sing praises to the Lord, O you his faithful ones,
and give thanks to his holy name.
For his anger is but for a moment;
his favor is for a lifetime.
Weeping may linger for the night,
but joy comes with the morning.

All: You have turned my mourning into dancing;
you have taken off my sackcloth and clothed me with joy,
so that my soul may praise you and not be silent.
O Lord my God, I will give thanks to you forever.

*HYMN 265 "Jesus Shall Reign Where'er the Sun" Duke Street

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION

God of abundance:
of wedding wine
and swollen nets
and baskets full after all have eaten,
show yourself to us when we come up empty,
when the ways we know are not enough.

Yoke us to your heart
until we love without measure.

*Silent Confession

*Kyrie Eleison

Arr. David N. Johnson

*The Peace

One: The peace of Christ be with you.

All: And also with you.

The congregation is invited to exchange the peace of Christ with one another, greeting each other with the words above.

*Response of Praise

People and realms of every tongue
dwell on his love with sweetest song,
and infant voices shall proclaim
their early blessings on his name.

THE WORD

TIME WITH CHILDREN

Children, three-years old through third-graders, are invited to come to the front of the Sanctuary for Time with Children. Children under three are invited to come forward with a parent.

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

I John 4:7-12

One: Beloved, let us love one another, because love is from God; everyone who loves is born of God and knows God. Whoever does not love does not know God, for God is love.

All: God’s love was revealed among us in this way:
God sent his only Son into the world
so that we might live through him.
In this is love, not that we loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the atoning sacrifice for our sins.

One: Beloved, since God loved us so much, we also ought to love one another.

All: No one has ever seen God;
if we love one another, God lives in us,
and his love is perfected in us.

A Fugue (Dulwich College Manuscript) (8:30) George Frideric Handel
1685-1759

An Anthem (11:00)

John Ireland
1879-1962Kathleen Jasinkas, soprano Charlie Hyland, baritone

Many waters cannot quench Love, neither can the floods drown it. Love is strong as death. Greater Love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. Who His own Self bare our sins in His own Body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness.

Ye are washed, ye are sanctified, ye are justified, in the Name of the Lord Jesus; Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation; That ye should show forth the praises of Him who hath called you out of darkness into His marvelous light.

I beseech you, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies, a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

*The Song of Solomon 8:7a, 6a; John 15:13; 1 Peter 2:24a;
1 Corinthians 6:11b; 1 Peter 2:9; Romans 12:1*

*Doxology

Lasst uns erfreuen

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Christ, all people here below, Alleluia, alleluia!
Praise Holy Spirit evermore;
Praise Triune God, whom we adore.
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory,
forever. Amen.

Welcome to the Fellowship of University Presbyterian Church

IN GRATEFUL RESPONSE to the grace of God, this community of Christ's Church gathers regularly for worship, study and discernment, and then disperses to carry the love of Jesus Christ into the community and the world beyond these walls. We invite you to join us on the journey.

OUR WORSHIPING FAMILY OF FAITH INCLUDES CHILDREN of all ages. Through our excellent childcare program, Sunday morning childcare is available during both worship services for infants, toddlers and preschool children, who will be welcomed by our trained nursery staff. We strive to provide skilled caregivers to accommodate any special needs. Infants are welcome to remain in the Sanctuary with parents; however, the parlor (located alongside the narthex) is a wonderful place for parents to calm an anxious baby. A special part of our service is the Time with Children, when they are invited to come to the front of the Sanctuary for a message that connects the worship of the day with their unique understanding. If children are new to this experience of coming forward, parents can join them. After the Time with Children, parents of those four years and younger are invited to take their children downstairs to the nurseries (through the door nearest the baptismal font). Please contact the Staff Associate for Children's Ministries, Nancy Myer, at (919) 929-2102 or nancy@upcch.org if there is anything we can do to enhance the Sunday morning experience for your family.

DURING THE 11:00 A.M. WORSHIP SERVICE, UPC offers Godly Play for kindergarteners and children who are age four (as of September 1). Godly Play is designed for worship education and faith formation and is a time of storytelling and creative play. Following the Time with Children, kindergarteners and four-year-olds go with the Godly Play Assistant through the door to the left of the pulpit to the Godly Play room. Younger children exit through the door near the parking lot and baptismal font.

Worship Notes

THIS MORNING'S MUSIC hails from the pens of three English composers. This morning's Voluntary is the work of Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872-1958), a great-great grandson of Josiah Wedgwood, the founder of the famous pottery firm; Charles Darwin was his great-uncle. Vaughan Williams led the early-Twentieth Century revival of English music: a movement that encouraged English composers of the time away from the considerable influence of "European music" (e.g., the music of Brahms and others) toward the use of English melodies and folksongs as the basis of a distinctive English School of composition. This morning we hear his chorale prelude on the Welsh hymntune Rhosymedre (Welsh for Lovely). George Frideric Handel (1685-1750) may well be the greatest English composer Germany ever produced. Although born in Halle in central Germany, he settled in London in 1712 and became a naturalized British subject by special Act of Parliament in 1727. He was a faithful parishioner of St. George's Church Hanover Square and lived just down the road at 25 Brook Street in Mayfair for the remainder of his life. (It was my privilege to visit both St. George's Church and Handel's home (now museum) during my sabbatical last summer.) Handel's "Dulwich College Fugue" heard during the 8:30 Offering may have originally been composed for the harpsichord. George Frideric Handel died 259 years ago yesterday, April 14, in 1759. The 11:00 Offertory continues the celebration of Easter with John Ireland's iconic Easter anthem with its text taken from the King James' Bible. The opening words of this anthem, "Many waters cannot quench love" are also found engraved on Ireland's tombstone.

CONTINUING THE CONVERSATION...The work of proclamation belongs not just to preachers but to the Christian community as a whole. To that end, if thoughts or questions are stimulated by a sermon that you hear, your worship leaders would be grateful to receive your reflections. While we are always open to face-to-face conversation, sometimes it's easier to drop a note by email. We can't promise to respond to each email individually, but we would love to have your thoughts and questions inform our preparation for worship in the weeks to come. Any responses you'd like to share may be sent to sermons@upcch.org.

THE BENEDICTION frequently offered by Margaret is adapted from an anointing liturgy by Jim Cotter.

PLEASE DO NOT PARK ON ROBERTSON LANE. It is fine to park in the designated pull-in parking spaces, but the road itself is a fire lane and must be kept clear. Thank you for your understanding.

Mission Study Team Update

The Mission Study Congregational Survey closes tonight. If you have already submitted your response, thank you! If you have yet to do so, there is still a bit of time. Go to <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/UPC-MST> to complete the survey online. Please help us represent you and your perspective as we prepare to write what we've learned in our Mission Study Report. Your input provides valuable insight for the upcoming Pastor Nominating Committee to carry out their work for our church family. Please also save the date for a pair of town hall style meetings on Sunday, April 22. We look forward to sharing our study findings with you and to welcoming your responses at these gatherings. These will be essentially identical events with the first occurring between services and the second after the 11:00 service. Light refreshments will be served and the nursery will remain open. Contact the Mission Study Team via our website (upcch.org/missionstudy), email (missionstudyteam@upcch.org), or in conversation with any team member.
