June 3, 2018
Second Sunday after Pentecost
8:30 and 11:00 a.m.

THE GATHERING

PREPARATION FOR WORSHIP

Thomas Merton
1915-1968

Afraid that our inner light will be extinguished, our inner darkness exposed,
we hide our true identities from each other.
In the process, we become separated from our own souls.
We end up living divided lives, so far removed from the truth we hold within that we cannot know the integrity that comes from being what we are.

THE ORGAN VOLUNTARY

Olivier Messiaen
1908-1992

The Celestial Banquet

“Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood live in me and I in them.”
~Gospel of John

You are thoroughly familiar with all our ways.

Where could we go to escape your presence?

you knit us together while we were still in our mothers' wombs.

Your works are wonderful—we know that very well.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Your voice calls to us, O God, and we fail to recognize it is you.
You call to us again and again, and we deny it is you.

Examine our intentions.
Lead us to places of eternal significance, for we would use our gifts to your glory and help others do the same.

we adore you! We believe!

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH Confession of Belhar (from section 2)

We believe that

Christ’s work of reconciliation is made manifest in the church as the community of believers who have been reconciled with God and with one another;

that this unity of the people of God must be manifested and be active in a variety of ways:

- in that we love one another;
- that we experience, practice and pursue community with one another;
 - that we are obligated to give ourselves willingly and joyfully to be of benefit and blessing to one another;
 - that we share one faith, have one calling, are of one soul and one mind;
 - have one God and Father, are filled with one Spirit, are baptized with one baptism, eat of one bread and drink of one cup, confess one name, are obedient to one Lord, work for one cause, and share one hope;
 - together come to know the height and the breadth and the depth of the love of Christ;
 - together are built up to the stature of Christ, to the new humanity;
 - together serve God in this world; and together fight against all which may threaten or hinder this unity.

CONCERNS AND CELEBRATIONS

SACRAMENT OF THE LORD'S SUPPER

Invitation to the Table

The Great Prayer of Thanksgiving

One: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

One: Lift up your hearts.

All: We lift them up to the Lord.

One: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

We praise you,
whom eternity cannot contain,
for coming to earth and entering time in Jesus.

For his life, which informs our living,
for his compassion, which changes our hearts,
for his clear speaking, which contradicts our harmless generalities,
for his disturbing presence,
his innocent suffering,
his fearless dying,
his rising to life breathing forgiveness,
we praise and worship you.

Here, too, our gratitude rises for the promise of the Holy Spirit,
who even yet, even now,
confronts us with your claims and attracts us to your goodness.

We praise you,
joining our voices with choirs of angels
and with all the faithful of every time and place,
who forever sing to the glory of your name:

Ho-ly, ho-ly, ho - ly, God of pow-er and maj-es- ty, heav-en and earth are full of Your glo-ry, O God most high!

And now,
lest we believe that our praise alone fulfils your purpose, we fall silent and remember him who came because words weren't enough

(silence)

Great is the mystery of faith.

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again!

Merciful God,
send now, in kindness,
your Holy Spirit to settle on this bread and wine and fill them with the fullness of Jesus.

And let that same Spirit rest on us, converting us from the patterns of this world,
until we conform to the shape of him whose food we now share.

As he taught us to pray, we are bold to say

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

The Words of Institution

The Sharing of the Bread and the Cup

Today we will receive the sacrament by means of intinction (dipping the bread in the cup). At 11 a.m., there will be two serving stations on each side; please proceed to the next available station. As the servers say, “the bread of life,” and “the cup of salvation,” you are invited to respond with “Amen” or “Thanks be to God.” (All of the elements are gluten-free; all cups contain grape juice.)

Prayer of Response

THE SENDING

*HYMN 726 “Will You Come and Follow Me” Kelvingrove

*CHARGE AND BENEDICTION

*ORGAN POSTLUDE The Children of God Messiaen

“To all those who have received it, the Spirit has given the power to become children of God. And God has given to their heart the spirit of the son, that cries, ‘Father! Father!’”

~Gospel of John, Letter to the Galatians

You are invited to stand, as able.*

THE FLOWERS IN THE SANCTUARY TODAY are given by the Bevin Family in loving memory of Priscilla D. Bevin in honor of her birthday on June 5.

THIS MORNING'S ORGAN MUSIC is from the pen of French composer Olivier-Eugène-Prosper-Charles Messiaen (1908-1992). Messiaen entered the Paris Conservatoire at the age of eleven on a fairly traditional course of study with teachers Paul Dukas, Charles-Marie Widor and Marcel Dupré, among others. As he matured, he would develop into a towering figure in 20th Century composition with a highly personal harmonic language noted for its complexity and rich tonal color. While still a student at the Conservatoire, he began an extensive private study of Eastern rhythms, birdsong (transcribing the songs of birds into musical notation), and microtonal music (which utilizes intervals smaller than a half-step). In 1931 he was appointed organist at the Church of the Sainte-Trinité (Holy Trinity) in Paris, a post he would hold for sixty-one years. On the fall of France in 1940, as a French soldier he was taken prisoner and interned at Görlitz, where he wrote Quatuor pour la fin du temps (Quartet for the End of Time) in 1941 for the only available musical instruments - a piano, violin, cello and clarinet. The work was first performed by Messiaen and fellow prisoners for an audience of 5,000 inmates and prison guards. After the war, Messiaen returned to Paris and resumed teaching, his duties at Sainte-Trinité, and the continuation of composition. From his New York Times obituary: "Messiaen was a prolific and distinctive composer who sought to capture in music both the beauty of the natural world and the spiritual secrets of Roman Catholic mysticism. The style he created in a compositional career that lasted more than six decades drew on everything from bird song—he is said to have quoted the songs of more than 250 species in his works—to Indian and Balinese rhythmic modes, as well as more conventional forms of Western chromaticism and Serial techniques." In this morning's Voluntary, The Celestial Banquet, and Offertory, Eternal Purposes, Messiaen's effective use of extremely slow tempos convey a sense of timelessness and eternity.

Summer Sunday School Gathering: Today

All are welcome to join the Rev. Dr. Lee Hinson-Hasty, who will lead the discussion "Who Am I Becoming?" today, 9:45-10:45 a.m., in Vance Barron Hall. Do you ever wonder, "Whom am I?, What is my purpose? How does my life matter? How can I make a bigger difference in the world?" Or maybe you wonder, "How should I spend my time? What about school for me? There is so much to be done—where do I start?" Join us as we discover together how God and God's people can guide us toward what God is calling for us to become. The Rev. Dr. Lee Hinson-Hasty is, at heart, a sailor who knows how to catch the wind of the Spirit and teach others to do the same. He has served as a pastor, a campus minister, as Montreat Youth small group leader and planning team member, and on the General Assembly staff for over a decade. Go to goo.gl/nPXEXf to take a look at a Vocation 101 video to begin thinking about this conversation and learning opportunity. Join us!

Letters for Kids at Summer Camp

Is your child going away to summer camp? Nancy Myer, UPC's Staff Associate for Children's Ministries, would like to send a note while your child is away. Please email Nancy at nancy@upcch.org with your child's address at camp, as well as the dates he/she will be there.

Sanctuary Hearing Loop

A hearing loop is installed in the Sanctuary. Those with hearing aids should activate their t-coil and your hearing and understanding of the worship service should be enhanced. Those without a t-coil can borrow a listening device with headphones. See the ushers for this option.

Holy Hunches: Talking About Faith & Life

Come one, come all! Everyone is invited to join casual conversations about faith and life this summer. We'll gather from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. in Meeting Room C of the Chapel Hill Public Library once a month over the summer. Schedule: Tuesday, June 12: Wonder; Thursday, July 26: Blessing; and Tuesday, August 21: Justice. Come as you are to get to know one another and add your voice, wit, and insight to the banter. If you have questions, or if having child care will make your attendance possible, contact Kate Fiedler (kate@upcch.org). See you then!

Children's Book Donations Needed

UPC has partnered with Book Harvest again for VBS this summer. Book Harvest is an organization that provides books to children in central North Carolina and engages families and communities to promote children's lifelong literacy and academic success. Book Harvest envisions a community where every child, regardless of family income, grows up in a home rich with books. Children attending Vacation Bible School this year will be encouraged to bring books to donate to the Book Harvest program, and donations are welcomed from the congregation, as well. Donation boxes are located in the Parlor and inside the Henderson Street entrance. Please sort through your used books or buy a couple of new ones to donate. You will empower the children of UPC and help other children in our community at the same time!

No One Wants to Talk About It

Where do you go with your faith questions when you have a miscarriage? So much is involved with a perinatal loss, and yet it is like a silent death. The pain is exacerbated by well-meaning friends or by those who simply do not know the need for care. A Stephen Minister doesn't have the answers, but they do have the time to listen and to help find resources during this difficult time. To learn more, please contact Hillary Bergman Cheek, Interim Associate Pastor, at hillary@upcch.org or (919) 929-2102, or you may visit upcch.org/stephen-ministry.

Might God Be Calling You?

Stephen Ministers are laypeople—Christian men and women—trained to provide one-to-one care to people experiencing a difficult time in life, such as grief, divorce, job loss, chronic or terminal illness, or relocation. Stephen Ministers are UPC members who are called by God to bring a spiritual presence of love and support to fellow members of our church. They meet with their care receiver with the major responsibility of listening along with offering hope and love of the church. If you accept this call, training will equip and empower you to provide high-quality, confidential, Christ-centered care to people who are hurting. Stephen Ministers come from all walks of life. Their commonality? A passion for bringing Christ's love and care to people during a time of need. Are you interested in learning more about Stephen Ministry? Do you feel a calling to serve God in this role? UPC will offer training for the next class of Stephen Ministers in January, 2019. Please contact Hillary Bergman Cheek at hillary@upcch.org or (919) 929-2102, or you may visit upcch.org/stephen-ministry to learn more.

11:00 Ushers Needed in June and July

Because many of our regular ushers will be traveling during the summer, UPC's Worship Committee is seeking additional volunteers for June and July. To view the schedule and sign up online, please visit goo.gl/uMbnsr.

NC Boys Choir & NC Girls Choir Spring Concert

You are cordially invited to the Spring Concert of the NC Boys Choir and NC Girls Choir on Sunday, June 10, at 5:00 p.m. in the UPC Sanctuary. Please plan to join us.

Young Adult Summer Activity

On Saturday, July 14, the young adults will serve dinner at the Ronald McDonald House. Dinner prep will likely begin around 2:00 p.m.; dinner will be served at 6:00 p.m. Let Catherine McKenas know by Saturday, June 30, if you'd like to join the kitchen crew or can help buy groceries and plan the meal (cmckenas@live.unc.edu).

Supplies Needed for Vacation Bible School

We are looking for several artificial Christmas trees. The trees may not be in great shape by the end of the week due to weather and dew at camp, so please only donate them if you are willing to get rid of them! In addition, two-liter bottles are needed for a science water purification experiment at VBS, along with small puzzle pieces and buttons. There are tubs located in the Parlor and inside the Henderson Street door. Please bring puzzle pieces, buttons, and rinsed bottles and recycle them at UPC for a good cause! Please email Nancy Myer at nancy@upcch.org if you can donate an artificial Christmas tree.

For the Final Season

UPC has published For the Final Season: Resources to Discuss and Share. This 18-page booklet is one central place to gather information about yourself, your resources, and your wishes for end-of-life care, which may prove helpful to your loved ones. It also includes resources for planning a memorial service and information for those wanting to be interred in the Anne McClamroch Memorial Garden; copies of these pages could be left on file in the church office for service planning when the time comes. Copies of the booklet are available in the Parlor on Sundays or from Hillary Bergman Cheek. Contact her at hillary@upcch.org or (919) 929-2102.
