*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

“Advent Credo” by Allan Boesak

It is not true that creation and the human family are doomed to destruction and loss—

This is true: For God so loved the world that He gave his only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have everlasting life;

It is not true that we must accept inhumanity and discrimination, hunger and poverty, death and destruction—

This is true: I have come that they may have life, and that abundantly.

It is not true that violence and hatred should have the last word, and that war and destruction rule forever—

This is true: Unto us a child is born, unto us a Son is given, and the government shall be upon his shoulder, his name shall be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, the Everlasting, the Prince of peace.

It is not true that we are simply victims of the powers of evil who seek to rule the world—

This is true: To me is given authority in heaven and on earth, and lo I am with you, even until the end of the world.

It is not true that we have to wait for those who are specially gifted, who are the prophets of the Church before we can be peacemakers—

This is true: I will pour out my spirit on all flesh and your sons and daughters shall prophesy, your young men shall see visions and your old men shall have dreams.

It is not true that our hopes for liberation of humankind, of justice, of human dignity of peace are not meant for this earth and for this history—

This is true: The hour comes, and it is now, that the true worshipers shall worship God in spirit and in truth.

So let us enter Advent in hope, even hope against hope. Let us see visions of love and peace and justice. Let us affirm with humility, with joy, with faith, with courage: Jesus Christ—the life of the world.

*HYMN 357

“The Days Are Surely Coming”

Llangloffan

THE THANKSGIVING

Offertory Sentence

At the Offering,

Das alte Jahr vergangen ist BWV614 (8:30)

Bach

The old year has past away

Come, thou long expected Jesus, born to set thy people free, from our fears and sins release us, let us find our rest in thee.
 Israel's strength and consolation, hope of all the earth thou art,
 dear desire of every nation, joy of every longing heart.

*Born to save, born to heal, come, O Savior, come.
 While we wait, while we pray, come, Savior, come.
 Hope of all heaven and earth, come, Jesus, come, O Jesus, come.*

Born thy people to deliver, born a child and yet a King, born to reign in us forever, now thy gracious kingdom bring.
 By thine own eternal Spirit rule in all our hearts alone,
 by thine all sufficient merit raise us to thy glorious throne.

Charles Wesley, 1707-1788

*Doxology

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
 praise God, all creatures here below;
 praise God above, ye heavenly host;
 praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

CONCERNS AND CELEBRATIONS

SACRAMENT OF THE LORD'S SUPPER

The congregation is invited to sing verses of the hymn "O Lord, How Shall I Meet You," which today are incorporated into our Great Prayer of Thanksgiving.

Invitation to the Table

The Great Prayer of Thanksgiving

One: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

One: Let us pray.

O Lord, how shall I meet you, how welcome you aright?
 Your people long to greet you, my hope, my heart's delight!
 O kindle, Lord most holy, a lamp within my breast
 To do in spirit lowly all that may please you best.

One: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

You breathed us into being, you named us as your own
 And when we wandered from you, you grieved our hearts of stone.
 You sent to us your prophets, your poets and your priests
 Who told us of your mercy, the promised gift of peace.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with choirs of angels and with all the faithful of every time and place
 who forever sing to the glory of your name:

Love caused your incarnation, love brought you down to me;
 Your thirst for my salvation procured my liberty.
 O love beyond all telling, that led you to embrace
 In love all loves excelling our lost and fallen race.

One: Great is the mystery of faith:

All: Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

*Pour out your breath upon us, and on this table spread
That we might come to meet you in cup and broken bread.
And bind us to each other that we might live to see
Your grace in blind eyes opened and captives breaking free.*

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

The Words of Institution

The Sharing of the Bread and the Cup

Today we will receive the sacrament by means of intinction (dipping the bread in the cup). At 11 a.m., there will be two serving stations on each side; please proceed to the next available station. As the servers say, “the bread of life,” and “the cup of salvation,” you are invited to respond with “Amen” or “thanks be to God.” (All of the elements are gluten-free; all cups contain grape juice.)

Prayer of Response

Gracious God,
Truly you have met us here:
we have tasted your love,
and glimpsed your image reflected in our neighbor’s.
Continue to burn in our hearts, we pray,
until we recognize your coming wherever bread and hearts are broken.
For we pray in the name of Jesus, whose every breath was praise.

*You come, O Lord, with gladness, in mercy and goodwill,
to bring an end to sadness and bid our fears be still.
In patient expectation we live for that great day
when your renewed creation your glory shall display.*

THIS MORNING'S ORGAN VOLUNTARY is one of Bach's greatest Advent chorale preludes. Nun komm, der Heiden Heiland (Come, Savior of the Nations) is based on the tune adapted from a plainsong melody first found in the Einsiedeln Hymnal of the twelfth or thirteenth century; the form of the melody Bach uses in this work was included in the Erfurt Enchiridia, 1524. The text is one of twelve definitely ascribed to Ambrose (340-397). As with many Advent hymns of the period, Nun komm is cast in a minor key, symbolic of the juxtaposition of the joyous expectation of Christ's birth and the inevitability of the cross. This setting is particularly famous for Bach's use of a 'walking bass' line, suggesting Christ's footsteps to Calvary. The highly ornamented (and thus disguised) melody has been interpreted as being "expressive of the impenetrable mystery of the Incarnation of God's Son." The doleful music heard during the 8:30 Offertory laments the ending of the past Liturgical Year. The new Liturgical Year begins today with the First Sunday of Advent.

THE FLOWERS IN THE SANCTUARY today are given in memory of Celia Parsons, mother of the late Bud Parsons.

THE ROSE ON THE RETABLE last week announced the birth of Walker Sharp Hobson, Jr. Walker is the child of Virginia and Walker Hobson and was born on November 23, 2017.

NEW MEMBERS WILL GATHER in the Fellowship Hall after the 11:00 service today and will be welcomed during worship next Sunday, December 10. We welcome new members every other month. If you are interested in becoming a part of our faith community, please contact Kate Fiedler or Elizabeth Michael at (919) 929-2102.

CONTINUING THE CONVERSATION...The work of proclamation belongs not just to preachers but to the Christian community as a whole. To that end, if thoughts or questions are stimulated by a sermon that you hear, your worship leaders would be grateful to receive your reflections. While we always are open to face-to-face conversation, sometimes it's easier to drop a note by email. We can't promise to respond to each email individually, but we would love to have your thoughts and questions inform our preparation for worship in the weeks to come. Any responses you'd like to share may be sent to sermons@upcch.org.

PLEASE DO NOT PARK ON ROBERTSON LANE. It is fine to park in the designated pull-in parking spaces, but the road itself is a fire lane and must be kept clear. Thank you for your understanding.

HANDICAPPED PARKING SPACES are set aside on Sunday directly in front of the church on Franklin Street. Please reserve these spaces for those with handicap parking permits.

LARGE PRINT BULLETINS AND HYMNALS and portable hearing devices are available every Sunday in the narthex.

LECTIONARY READINGS FOR NEXT SUNDAY: Isa. 40:1-11; Ps. 85:1-2, 8-13; 2 Peter 3:8-15a; Mark 1:1-8.

News and Opportunities

December 3, 2017

2018 Stewardship Campaign

As the year-end approaches, the Session is deeply grateful to all who have pledged estimates of financial giving for 2018. Because we must prepare the church's budget in early January, it would be very helpful to receive pledges of support before the end of 2017. As of November 22, total dollars pledged were down 6% compared to last year and total number of pledges down 5%, so we have some catching up to do! If you haven't yet pledged, please fill out a pledge card located in the narthex and place it in the offering plate today or mail it to UPC at P.O. Box 509, Chapel Hill, NC 27514. You may also email your pledge to finance@upcch.org or pledge securely online at www.upcch.org/stewardship. The latest stewardship campaign updates are on the chart in the narthex and on the website.

Alternative Gift Market: Purchase a Gift

If you missed the Alternative Gift Market in November, you may purchase green and sustainable Christmas gifts at a table in the narthex today and next Sunday, December 10. Checks only please. View the 2017 shopping list online at upcch.org/resources.

Kitchen Clean-Out: Claim Your Dish

A kitchen clean-out is in the works! If you have left a beloved dish, plate, or pot in the Fellowship Hall or Youth Center kitchen after a scrumptious potluck at UPC, please be sure to pick it up by Christmas. After December 25, unclaimed dishes that are not useful in the kitchens will be donated. New, more functional kitchenware for the large meals we prepare is on the way, and we are working to make space for the pots and pans that are needed. Thanks for helping us get the plates back to the rightful owners.

Longest Night Service

Joy and merriment are prevalent in the Christmas season, and it can be hard to find space to sit with loss, grief, loneliness, and other strong feelings that weigh heavily during the holidays. Consider joining us for a special service of worship, "The Longest Night," on Sunday, December 17, at 5:00 p.m. in the Sanctuary. This service will be a quiet, meditative observance of Advent, meant to offer space for all the parts of our life we bring to the manger. If this holiday season finds you mourning the loss of a loved one, coping with periods of darkness, seeking quiet contemplative space, or longing to be of support for those in need of healing, there is a place for you here. We will gather for quiet prayer, reading of scripture, music, lighting of candles, and intentional silence. Contact Elizabeth Michael, at elizabeth@upcch.org or (919) 929-2102 with questions..

Kirk Club

Kirk Club, for 4th and 5th graders, will meet next on Wednesday, December 6, from 3:30-4:30 p.m. in the Youth Center. Please contact Kim McNeill at kim@upcch.org or Nancy Myer at nancy@upcch.org with questions.

Men's Breakfast

The next Men's Breakfast will be held this Monday, December 4, from 7:00-8:00 a.m. in the PCM Kitchen and Terrace Room. The last meeting of 2017 will be on Monday, December 18. Breakfast and coffee will be served. The goal of the men's breakfast is to create fellowship opportunities for the male members of UPC. For questions, please contact Cole Van De Water at colevdw@gmail.com.

Beauty and Bounty

Gifts of Beauty and Bounty order forms are due by noon on Monday, December 11, 2017. Join us this year as we honor and remember the special people in our lives in one of two ways. You may give a poinsettia which will be used to decorate the chancel during Christmas, or you may make a contribution to the Inter-Faith Council for Social Services which will be used to provide support to those in our community who are in need. You may choose to do both! The names of those we honor or remember will appear in the Sunday Worship Bulletin, December 17, 2017. Order forms are available in the narthex, or visit upcch.org/resources to print the form yourself. You may bring it to the church office or mail it to UPC, Gifts of Beauty and Bounty, P.O. Box 509, Chapel Hill NC 27514-0509.

Facilitator: Jim Schultz. (Terrace Room).

“Why Don't You Try This?”

When you are going through tough times, everyone has advice. But often it isn't advice you need or want—it's caring you desire. Stephen Ministers are trained to give this care by listening instead of telling you what to do. Do yourself a huge favor and contact Elizabeth Michael at (919) 929-2102 or elizabeth@upcch.org.

Continuing Education: Come and Learn

The Stephen Ministry Program has opened up their continuing education to the congregation. Please plan to join us on Monday, December 4, for Stress, Life's Challenges, and Mindful Awareness, at 7:00 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall.

Visit upcch.org/connect-stephen-minister to learn more about this event and Stephen Ministry at UPC.

A $10 donation is suggested, but all are welcome regardless of resources.
