THE GATHERING

PREPARATION FOR WORSHIP

God of the generations,
when we set our hands to labor, thinking we work alone, remind us that we carry on our lips
the words of prophets,
in our veins
the blood of martyrs, in our eyes
the mystics' visions, in our hands
the strength of thousands.

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

Please sign the Worship Register and pass it on to your neighbor.

OPENING RESPONSIVE PRAYER

John Bell

Eternal God,
You see face to face those whom we remember here.

Tell them that we love them, that we miss them, that they are not forgotten.

And, cheered by the prospect of a day when there will be no more death or parting and all shall be well and all shall be one, if it be your will may they, whom we remember, be among the first to welcome us into the company of the saints in light.

Until that day, keep us in faith, fill us with hope, deepen us through love to the glory of your holy name. Amen.

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION

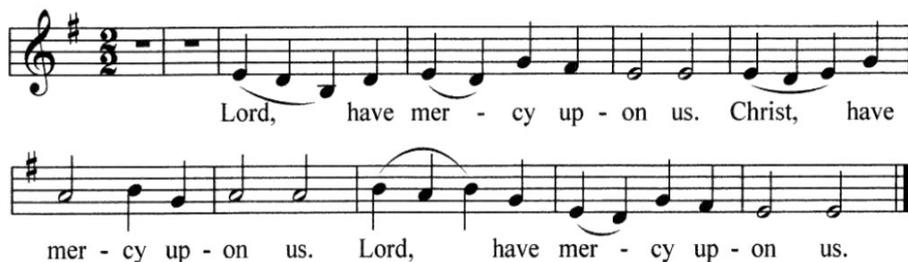

Merciful God,
We hold our losses closely,
struggling to trust in a life we cannot see.
We guard our hearts, lest we be disappointed.
We constrain our hope, so as not to seem fools.

Meet us when the way is hard,
and do not leave us as you find us.
Call us from the caves of our despair and strip away what binds us, until we find the strength to rise and follow, wherever you would lead.

*Silent Confession

*Kyrie Eleison

Arr. David N. Johnson

Lord, have mer - cy up - on us. Christ, have mer - cy up - on us. Lord, have mer - cy up - on us.

*Assurance of Forgiveness

*The Peace

One: The peace of Christ be with you.

All: And also with you.

The congregation is invited to exchange the peace of Christ with one another, greeting each other with the words above.

*Response of Praise

(Hymnal, 326)

O blest communion, fellowship divine!
We feebly struggle; they in glory shine;
yet all are one in thee, for all are thine.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

THE WORD

An Anthem (8:30) incorporating Lobe den Herren
The Junior Choir arr. Mark Burrows Jason Dell, percussion; b. 1971
Nell Buckner, treble

Bwana, bwana, bwana asifiwe (Praise the Lord)

Praise the Lord in the heavens. Praise the Lord for the Lord is good.
Praise the Lord. Praise God's name.

Praise to the Lord the almighty the king of creation.
Oh, my soul praise him, for he is thy health and salvation.
All ye who hear, now to his temple draw near.
Join me in glad adoration!

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

SCRIPTURE READING John 11:1-7, 17-26, 32-44 p. 104-105
(Children's Bible, pp. 1242-1244)

One: The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

SERMON "Living Unbound" Margaret LaMotte Torrence

Time is provided following the sermon for a few moments of personal reflection and prayer.

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (from A Declaration of Faith, PCUS 1977)

In Christ God gave us a glimpse of the new creation he has already begun and will surely finish.
We do not know when the final day will come.
In our time we see only broken and scattered signs that the renewal of all things is under way.
We do not yet see the end of cruelty and suffering in the world, the church, or our own lives.
But we see Jesus as Lord.
As he stands at the center of our history,
we are confident he will stand at its end.
He will judge all people and nations.
Evil will be condemned and rooted out of God's good creation.
There will be no more tears or pain.
All things will be made new.
The fellowship of human beings with God and each other will be perfected.
Jesus is Lord!
He has been Lord from the beginning.
He will be Lord at the end.
Even now he is Lord.

*HYMN 516 "For the Bread Which You Have Broken" Kingdom

THE THANKSGIVING

*Offertory Sentence
At the Offering,

An Anthem (8:30)

Ernest Bullock
1890-1979

Give us the wings of faith to rise
Within the veil, and see
The Saints above, how great their joys,
How bright their glories be.
We ask them whence their victory came;
They, with one united breath,
Ascribe the conquest to the Lamb,
Their triumph to his death.
They mark'd the footsteps that he trod,
His zeal inspir'd their breast;
They reach'd the promis'd rest.

words, Isaac Watts, 1674-1748

An Anthem (11:00) Southern Harmony, 1835
The Youth Choir arr. Mack Wilberg
Lindsay Guamán, flute b. 1955

My Shepherd will supply my need; Jehovah is his name;
In pastures fresh he makes me feed, beside the living stream.
He brings my wandering spirit back, when I forsake his ways, and leads me for his mercy's sake, in paths of truth and grace.

When I walk through the shades of death, thy presence is my stay;
One word of thy supporting breath drives all my fears away.
Thy hand, in sight of all my foes, doth still my table spread;
My cup with blessings overflows, thine oil anoints my head.

The sure provisions of my God attend me all my days;
O may thy house be mine abode and all my work be praise!
There would I find a settled rest while others go and come,
no more a stranger, nor a guest; but like a child at home.

words, Isaac Watts, 1674-1748

*Doxology

Old Hundredth

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
praise God, all creatures here below;
praise God above, ye heavenly host;
praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

CONCERNS AND CELEBRATIONS

SACRAMENT OF THE LORD'S SUPPER

Invitation to the Table

The Great Prayer of Thanksgiving

One: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

One: Lift up your hearts.

All: We lift them up to the Lord.

One: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is truly right and our greatest joy to give you thanks and praise, for you made us, and before us, you made the world we inhabit, and before the world, you made the eternal home in which, through Christ, we have a place.

And grateful as we are for the world we know and the universe beyond our knowing, we particularly praise you, whom eternity cannot contain,
for coming to earth and entering time in Jesus.

For his life, which informs our living,
for his compassion, which changes our hearts,
for his clear speaking,
which contradicts our harmless generalities,
for his disturbing presence,
his innocent suffering,
his fearless dying,
his rising to life breathing forgiveness,
we praise and worship you.

Here, too, our gratitude rises for the promise of the Holy Spirit, who even yet, even now, confronts us with your claims and attracts us to your goodness.
As we gather at your table we remember those dear to us with whom we wait to feast again in glory:

*Robert Northup
Lloyd Darter
Dorothy Martyn
Nancy Adams
Bob Keever*

*Bet McClamroch
Crystal Johnston
Nancy Neuffer
Nancy Darter
Rod James*

*Penny Van De Water
William Proffit
Bill McDonald*

We also remember others precious to our hearts whom we name before you now in silence:

We praise you, Breath of Life, joining our voices with choirs of angels and with all the faithful of every time and place, who forever sing to the glory of your name:

And now,
lest we believe that our praise alone fulfills your purpose, we fall silent and remember him who came because words weren't enough:

Great is the mystery of faith.
Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again!

Merciful God,
send now, in kindness,
your Holy Spirit to settle on this bread and wine and fill them with the fullness of Jesus.

And let that same Spirit rest on us, converting us from the patterns of this world, until we conform to the shape of him whose food we now share.

As he taught us to pray, we are bold to say:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

The Words of Institution

The Sharing of the Bread and the Cup

Today we will receive the sacrament by means of intinction (dipping the bread in the cup). At 11 a.m., there will be two serving stations on each side; please proceed to the next available station. As the servers say, "the bread of life," and "the cup of salvation," you are invited to respond with "Amen" or "Thanks be to God." (All of the elements are gluten-free; all cups contain grape juice.)

Prayer of Response

In gratitude for this moment, this meal, these people, we give ourselves to you.
Take us out to live as changed people because we have shared the Living Bread, the New Wine and cannot remain the same.
Ask much of us,
Expect much from us,
Enable much by us,
Encourage many through us.
So, Lord, may we live to your glory, as children of the resurrection. Amen

THIS MORNING'S ORGAN VOLUNTARY: Marcel Dupré (1886-1971), who was to become one of the greatest organists of the 20th Century, began his career in church music at the age of twelve when he was appointed organist at the church of St. Vivien in Rouen, France. He was the greatest student of Charles-Marie Widor (1844-1937), organist of the church of St. Sulpice (of The Da Vinci Code fame) in Paris; upon Widor's retirement in 1934, Dupré succeeded Widor and remained in that post until his death on the Day of Pentecost in 1971. Between them, the two organists served St. Sulpice for 101 years! Dupré's improvisations were legendary, and many of his compositions were based on improvisations, including this morning's Voluntary. It utilizes the Gregorian theme Placare Christi servulis (the Gregorian chant appointed for use on All Saints') in the pedals with a dazzling accompaniment.

ELDERS, SESSION FOLDERS ARE AVAILABLE in the church mailboxes. The Session will meet on Thursday, November 8, at 7 p.m. in Vance Barron Hall.

PLEASE DO NOT PARK ON ROBERTSON LANE. It is fine to park in the designated pull-in parking spaces, but the road itself is a fire lane and must be kept clear. Thank you for your understanding.

HANDICAPPED PARKING SPACES are set aside on Sunday directly in front of the church on Franklin Street, and four spaces are available in the church parking lot off Robertson Lane. Please reserve these spaces for those with handicap parking permits.

LARGE PRINT BULLETINS AND HYMNALS and portable hearing devices are available every Sunday in the narthex.

LECTIONARY READINGS FOR NEXT SUNDAY: Ruth 3:1-5; 4:13-17; Ps. 127; Heb. 9:24-28; Mark 12:38-44.

2019 Stewardship Campaign

Thank you for your outpouring of generosity in response to our Stewardship campaign. Our willingness to bear fruit that will last is sorely needed in a world that longs for healing and peace. If you were not able to make your pledge last week, you may mail your pledge card to the church office (P.O. Box 509, Chapel Hill, NC 27514) or pledge online via our secure website at upcch.org/stewardship. Be sure to check our progress as we celebrate what we as a congregation intend to contribute to create UPC's 2019 budget. Updates will be on a poster in the narthex.

Attention: Handicapped Parking Instructions

For those using the handicapped parking spaces on Sunday mornings, please pull all the way to the front of the row when pulling in. Do not park in the middle of the designated area. We would like to make it easier for those who require handicapped parking on Sundays and help them avoid parallel parking. In addition, we now have access to a wheelchair at the handicapped parking spaces. Thank you!

In the afternoon, the person will clean rooms and restrooms and set up for meetings. The candidate must be able to perform physical, manual labor and have good interpersonal skills. A criminal background check will be performed prior to employment. To apply, candidates must send a cover letter, resume, and references to weekend@upcch.org.

Bring your lunch and come for a one-day workshop on Saturday, November 10, from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. in Dunham Hall. We will make a set of beautiful banners for Advent and will explore the process of banner design, starting with scripture. The results will be stunning! To RSVP, send an email to RSVP@upcch.org. If you can only make it for part of the day, we would still love to have you. No previous artistic skills needed. Ages 12 and over are invited.

PYPs Pancake Breakfast

Life in Malawi Presentation

On Sunday, November 18, following the 11:00 worship service in Vance Barron Hall, Jack Benjamin will give a one-hour presentation of his recent trip to Malawi in southeastern Africa. He was asked to go on this trip as a photographer by the Medical Benevolence Foundation (MBF), an organization which our church supports financially. Jack will show images of small rural health-care centers, as well as images of health-care workers, patients and their families. Lunch will be provided. All are invited to join this presentation.

Presbyterian Youth Connection

This Sunday, PYC is from 12:00-1:30 in the Fellowship Hall. All 6th-12th graders are encouraged to attend as we gather for lunch and fellowship and start to explore our November theme of Calling. What and who are we called to be? Scripture tells us that God calls us. School counselors tell us that we should search for our calling in life. But what does it all mean in our day to day? Join in the conversation! Bring $5 for lunch. Contact Kim McNeill at kim@upcch.org.

Lending Library

If you've walked through Dunham Hall recently, you may have noticed that the church now has a lending library. It is sponsored by the Mental Health Task Force and contains both mental health books and religious books. Feel free to check out books for up to a month. In each book is a sign-out card to be placed in the file box, but if you would prefer to borrow a book confidentially, it is not necessary to sign it out. If you wish to donate books, please contact Jay Williams at (919) 357-7244.

PW Service Project: Diaper Collection

The Presbyterian Women (PW) will collect diapers for the Refugee Support Center (RSC) beginning Sunday, November 4, through Sunday, December 16. Refugee families do not have access to other diaper distribution services, only the RSC service, so local groups are helping meet this need in our community. We invite our UPC congregation to help support this outreach ministry in two ways: 1) Place diapers you purchase in boxes in the church parlor or office. Please note that only sizes 4, 5, and 6 are needed. Please do not buy smaller sizes. 2) You may write a check to UPC with "Refugee Diaper Project" in the memo line. Money collected will be used to buy diapers for the Center. We need a total of 3,020 diapers (420 size 4; 1,220 size 5; and 1380 size 6). We will deliver the diapers to RSC in January for February distribution. Thank you for supporting this project. Contact Mary Ellen Olson, (maryeolson27@gmail.com) or Vicki Lotz (vjlotz@live.unc.edu) with questions.

Is the Holy Spirit Nudging you?

If you think Stephen Ministry might not be for you, why not take it up with God in prayer? Are you open to seeking God's will and paying attention to the Holy Spirit's nudging? Noah probably had no idea he was going to build an ark; James and John were minding their nets and their own business when Jesus said, "Follow me," and Saul certainly didn't expect a blinding light on the road to Damascus and to have his name changed to Paul. God is full of surprises. He delights in calling us to ministry in surprising ways. Stephen Ministry is one way at UPC that you can answer that call. Our training course offered in January 2019 will equip and empower you to faithfully serve as a Stephen Minister and walk alongside others through the more difficult seasons of life. For more information, contact Hillary Bergman Cheek at (919) 929-2102 or hillary@upcch.org.

Second Sunday Lunch

The congregation is invited to Second Sunday Lunch on November 11 in the Fellowship Hall, following the 11:00 a.m. worship service. The Children's Sub-committee and the Adult Education Committee will co-host the event and provide the main course and drinks.

Children's, Junior, and Youth Choirs

The Youth Choir (grades 6-12) will meet today from 1:30-3:30 immediately following PYC for auditions for Narnia, the musical, based on C.S. Lewis' The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe. Performance dates are January 31, February 1, and February 2. Auditions are open to all 6th-12th graders. Even if you are not interested in being a lead with a solo, please plan to audition. You may leave auditions early at 2:30. We cast the show this week and need to know who is interested in being a part of the production. The costumers will be at the auditions to get your measurements. Callbacks for those interested in a role will be November 5 at 7:00. Auditions are time-consuming; bring homework to do while you wait for your turn to read or sing. Invite your friends to join us in the production! All are welcome! Contact Beth for more information at visser@upcch.org.

The Junior Choir (grades 2-6) will rehearse today from 4:15-4:55. We are working on Christmas music! Now is a great time to join this choir! Contact Beth for more information at visser@upcch.org.

The Children's Choir (grades (K-2) will rehearse today from 3:45-4:10 and sing next in worship on November 18 at 11:00. We are working on our Christmas music! Now is a great time to join this choir! Contact Beth for more information at visser@upcch.org.

Narnia Technical Team: Help needed! If you love working the technical side of the theatre, we need you! Contact Beth at visser@upcch.org if you could help out with the Youth Choir's 2019 production of Narnia, the musical based on C.S. Lewis' The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe. Performance dates are January 31, February 1, and February 2. We need help with lights, backstage, costumes, make-up, snacks, set design, painting, heavy lifting, sound, building, etc. Join this fun group of techies!
