

A Gift of CHILDREN'S EDUCATION has been sent in your honor to support the

LATIN PATRIARCHATE SCHOOL

Zababdeh, Palestine

The Latin Patriarchate School in Zababdeh on the West Bank of Palestine has partnered with University Presbyterian Church for more than 20 years, with the first students we helped support entering college this year. The economic isolation of the West Bank under the Occupation has left many parents without jobs and thus without resources to provide their children with hope for a brighter future. The school serves ~600 Christian and Muslim boys and girls from preschool through 12th grade. By teaching peaceful solutions and providing an education, the Latin Patriarchate School promises children a brighter future in the midst of war. This gift supports tuition and school fees.

A Gift of CHILDREN'S EDUCATION has been sent in your honor to support the

LATIN PATRIARCHATE SCHOOL

Zababdeh, Palestine

The Latin Patriarchate School in Zababdeh on the West Bank of Palestine has partnered with University Presbyterian Church for more than 20 years, with the first students we helped support entering college this year. The economic isolation of the West Bank under the Occupation has left many parents without jobs and thus without resources to provide their children with hope for a brighter future. The school serves ~600 Christian and Muslim boys and girls from preschool through 12th grade. By teaching peaceful solutions and providing an education, the Latin Patriarchate School promises children a brighter future in the midst of war. This gift supports tuition and school fees.